The Microsoft trial has squandered millions of taxpayers' dollars, was a nuisance to consumers, and was a serious deterrent to investors in the high-tech industry. It is high time for this trial, and the wasteful spending accompanying it, to be over. Consumers will indeed see competition in the marketplace, rather than the courtroom. And the investors who propel our economy can finally breathe a sigh of relief.

I believe this single act of heresy perpetrated by Bill Clinton and his lacky, Janet Reno, may well have been the catalyst for the recession we have experienced since and are still experiencing now.
